

SYDNEY, Wednesday, January 5, 1994

WEATHER: Dry, 29 degrees

Phone: 288 3000 60 cents*

5

The secret, sordid life of Roseanne

REPORT, PICTURE — PAGE 3

Young Libs

What makes them tick

PAGE 4

MADAME DOUBTFIRE — THE NOVEL CONTINUES: PAGES 38,39

Greg without hair

Matthews bowls up in a new hair-trick

By MARGARET KENEALLY

WHEN cricketer Greg Matthews next wears the blue cap of the NSW Sheffield Shield team, it will hide his crowning glory — new hair.

That's right, Matthews, who regularly bowls wearing his cap, now has a luxuriant head of locks.

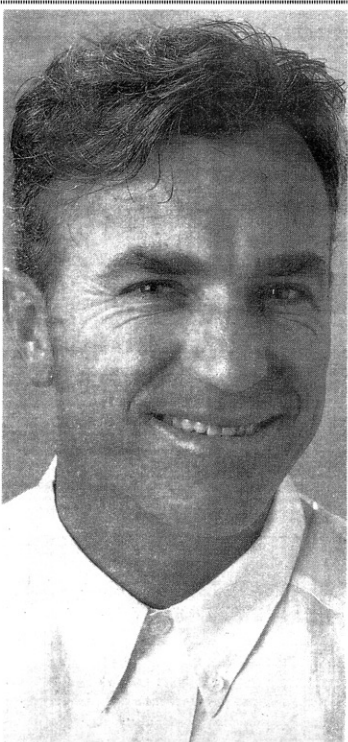

The receding Matthews, who was given a clean bill of health by his neurologist this week after he received head injuries in an incident outside a Perth nightclub, is overjoyed at his new look.

"Baldness worries a lot of guys. It worried me, so I finally did something about it," Matthews, 34, said.

"I feel 10 years younger. I can play cricket, hang-glide, surf or do whatever I want with my full head of hair."

The procedure which gave Matthews the hairline of a 25-year-old was simple.

The original hair of a follically challenged customer is

Matthews with his brand new crowning glory yesterday

Continued Page 2