GOALIE NOEL'S HAIR TO STAY

SHAMROCK Rovers ace Noel Mooney lured the ladies with his luscious locks yesterday — after having hair implants.

The 27-year-old goalie was devastated when he began going bald six years ago.

But after revolutionary treatment, he's now got a top-league barnet — as models Jenny-Lee Masterson and Baiba Gaile clearly agree.

Noel, right before implants, said: "Hair loss runs in my family and I started to lose my mine when I was only 21. It really hit my confidence so I decided to go for treatment.

"I thought I'd better come clean since my hair just seemed to inexplicably grow between matches."

Noel had a layer of 'skin' non-surgically grafted to his scalp before hairs were added strand by strand by experts at the Advanced Hair Studio in Dublin Hunky bachelor Noel added: "It was totally painless and I feel great.

"There's a stigma attached to baldness so why not do something about it."
